Alberto Vizziolo Alberto Vizziolo (30 January 1876 – 10 March 1947) was an Italian painter, mostly of landscapes and, from 1925, of architectural paintings, mostly in the Futurist style. Biography Born in Brescia, he first enrolled at the Brera Academy under Carlo Porta. During those years, he began to exhibit a new style characterized by strong contrasts between colour and shadows, and by strong contrast of composition, signs of reflection in the water and traces of dynamism. From 1899-1904, Vizziolo stayed mainly in Genova, where he developed his themes around the Ligurian coast. He also lived in Bologna, Ferrara and Florence. In 1905, Vizziolo met Filippo Tommaso Marinetti, and he began to work and exhibit under Futurist influence. Between 1910 and 1915, Vizziolo operated a painting school in Milan. He was a friend of the Swiss painter Piero Sappi and of the critic Massimo Bontempelli. In 1907 he exhibited at the Brera Academy in Milan. He also had personal exhibitions in Milan in 1912, in Turin in 1920, in Venice in 1927, and at the Galleria Costa Armati in Milan in 1930. He died in Milan in 1947. see. The 15 or so rescues that make up the cast have come from all corners of the country, from Albuquerque, NM, to Odessa, TX. They've been rescued from the streets, pulled from old, smelly water bowls, and put through every possible indignity—all just to receive the love and affection of a human home. The show has gotten a lot of attention, and the poor dogs seem to be getting the fame they deserve. From the Humane Society of the United States: "After watching the show last night, I'm sure many viewers felt like I did when we got into the shelter, that our life is just so special they feel they need to save us," said Lakey Eland, an animal trainer at the Humane Society of the United States. "I hope the Samba Dogs get the exposure they've deserved and are able to get rescued." HSUS is sponsoring the Samba Dogs, providing them with food, shelter, and veterinary care. Watch the show and make sure you don't sponsor them so they can stay in this wonderful, warm home, or become the next one on TV. Now, a big, fat "THANK YOU" for watching Throwback Thursday. Thanks to Lexi, Emily, and all the rest at the San Antonio Pets Alive! Shelter.
