VR2: Vacate 2 Rooms is VR dungeon crawler game where you play the role of the new owner of a normal, but beautiful Japanese apartment and is challenged by the old tenants to vacate the second floor of the building and leave the apartment in a good condition. You will be given a key to that door and you can acquire rooms on the second floor. Make your way through the apartments from the first floor in order to reach the street and leave the building in the best possible condition.

About the music: The music in this game is my original idea and one of my old favorite projects of the last years. I have developed it into a fully orchestral composition. The music is built up with many different ideas and influences from multiple composers including a low-tech, real-world musician like me. I first thought about creating an ambient-rock piece with strong rhythms, probably in the genre of ambient rock. But when I finished this piece, I realized it has a lot more to offer and incorporated so many different styles and elements from the contemporary electronic music that I could hardly recognize this piece as ambient rock anymore. I also incorporated a lot of elements from a classical musical style and classical EDM style. By combining all this styles in one composition, I created an ambient-rock song with a lot of depth and a clear structure.

The Album: In this project, I started with an idea of creating a more simple album for myself. But when I created the tracklist, I realized it was not as simple as I thought. Because of this, I realized that it was necessary to create a large-scale orchestral composition that I could tour around. Also, I knew I would need a clear structure and an organic flow in the composition. When I started mixing the pieces together, I could not even find a name for this piece yet. This was how I came up with the idea of calling this project "I Came to Vacate," meaning "I want to Vacate". Then, I started looking for a composer to collaborate with and contacted other composers via the internet. I could not find a composer that fitted my needs and therefore I picked a composer that was a real musical friend and collaborator. So I contacted him and asked him if he wanted to collaborate on this project with me. Thus we did collaborate on the composition and also created a new layer in the composition. About me: I am hOSHI, but it is not spelled with an c9d1549cdd

Use of Game of Duplicate Characters function - All characters on this board are duplicates, therefore all words, numbers, pictures, spaces are "not unique". This is a necessary condition for all games using the Game of Duplicate Characters (GDC) function. Quality - Tests completed in the past week have shown all puzzles at acceptable standards. Have fun! Anyone interested in the puzzles (those who have passed the Keywords Test and those who have submitted puzzles to us) can play free for as long as they wish. We are looking for volunteers to help us test the site. You can become a beta tester by selecting a username from the list on the left, then select Join now. You will be prompted to put in your own email address. If you use Windows, copy and paste the following into a text editor, and save it as a.bat file. When double clicked it will open gdc.bat in the command prompt. (The file can be deleted when you are done testing) Once the gdc.bat file is open, you can use the following commands: If you need to install something, copy and paste these into a text editor, and save it as a.cmd file. When double clicked it will open cmd.bat in the command prompt. (The file can be deleted when you are done testing) Once the gdc.bat or cmd.bat file is open, you can use the following commands: 'imgu' or 'isgraph' tests if a specific character is a letter, number, punctuation mark or space. (The test is run in the immediate window) 'setc' enables the game of duplicate characters. This is normally used in a text editor as part of the test, but you can do it within a batch file. If you are using a computer that has Word 2003 or later, you can copy and paste the following from Microsoft's website into a text editor, and save it as a.doc file. Then click on the file to open it in Word. The instructions should be on the page where the file is saved. (The file can be deleted when you are done testing) Directions:Open Word and save the file (e.g. Word TEST.doc) you just copied. You can rename it and choose whether to make the file open with the older or the newer Microsoft Office application. (The file

The wind and the sun are always in the air of the Shuu Shu Empire. The wind blows the leaves of the trees as it goes. The sun rises and its fire touches the sky. Meanwhile, the sky is covered with clouds and it rains. The heroes exist in this world. They are the adventurers of the highest level, people who can defeat gods. The Shuu Shu Empire is gradually changing in accordance with the power of the adventuring heroes. The stories of the heroes (the stories of the adventurers) are varied. Hero's various worlds are constantly fighting for the conquest of the world and its destruction, and their battles make the people of the surrounding area live in fear. By defeating the enemy god, the hero will receive the treasures from the god. They can trade the swords and armor from the enemy god, as well as trade in many different kinds of items, and they will be able to make many kinds of items by means of these treasures. And even if they choose not to trade the treasures, they can obtain the materials necessary to make equipment to fight against the enemy god, at one-fourth of the cost. The hero can also become strong. An adventurer who defeats the enemy god can receive the ability to break through level 100 of the enemy god, as well as the Eurythmics, Thalassa, etc.
